

PRESS PASSES ISSUE RULES
at the 59th Warsaw Autumn International Festival of Contemporary Music

The 59th Warsaw Autumn International Festival of Contemporary Music will issue press passes for the Festival's main events and fringe events, exclusively for this year's edition running 16 through 24 September 2016.

Rules of assigning and issuing press passes:

1. The 59th Warsaw Autumn International Festival of Contemporary Music issues two types of press passes: paid and free. Paid passes are issued to individual journalists who failed to obtain free passes, upon application.
2. Free passes are assigned subject to availability while paid passes are assigned after the limit of free passes is exhausted, upon the delegated journalist's application, according to the table of discounts for tickets and passes for the 59th Warsaw Autumn International Festival of Contemporary Music.
3. Free press passes are issued based on accreditation applications, downloadable from the website www.warszawska-jesien.art.pl and sent by email to festival@warsaw-autumn.art.pl, ania.kierkosz@gmail.com or filed personally to the Warsaw Autumn office by 24 August 2016, 11:55pm.
4. Free press passes will be allocated by 6 September 2016 individually by the festival organiser's to journalists who file accreditation applications.
5. Press passes will be issued to active professional journalists of legally registered media and official websites.
6. Press passes will be issued based on valid press IDs. Journalist union or association IDs are not sufficient for obtaining Warsaw Autumn press accreditations.
7. Warsaw Autumn press passes are valid only when presented jointly with a valid press ID and personal ID.
8. The number of free Warsaw Autumn press passes is limited.
9. Warsaw Autumn press passes can only be retrieved personally from the Festival's office. Retrieval dates will be set individually for each journalist.
10. Accredited journalists will be handed free press material on the 59th Warsaw Autumn Festival (catalogue, press releases, etc.).